

Scafell Today

Stu & Simon sneaked in an ascent of Moss Gill (IV, 5) on Scafell today. Conditions are softening up so we are pleased to have been up there to get the route done. A variety of challenges appear all the way up this climb – great fun. We descended Deep Ghyll, The West Wall Traverse and Lord’s Rake. No one else climbing, but a few walkers around enjoying the uncrowded hills.